SUNDAY CONNECTIONS

Gospel Reading

Luke 12:49-53

Jesus has come not only to bring peace but also division.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Having reminded the apostles and the crowd that facing the coming judgment takes patience, Jesus now goes on to speak of how difficult it will be to wait. He tells them that he has come to set the earth on fire. Recall that in chapter 3 of Luke's Gospel, John the Baptist tells the crowd that he is baptizing with water, but someone mightier is coming who will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. The fire Jesus speaks of here is the distress caused by the coming judgment. It is also the fire of the Spirit that Luke, in the Acts of the Apostles, will describe descending on the disciples on Pentecost. That fire will strengthen them to go out to the whole world to preach the good news of Jesus' Resurrection.

Jesus will be the first to experience the distress of the coming judgment. His baptism will be the conflict into which he will be immersed as he approaches Jerusalem and his death on the cross. His followers will not be spared that distress. The angels at Jesus' birth proclaimed peace on earth, and Simeon, holding the baby Jesus in the Temple, said to God: "Master, now you may let your servant go in peace." Here Jesus tells the crowd not to think he has come to bring peace; he has come to bring division. Simeon said as much when he turned to Mary and said that the child was destined for the rise and fall of many and to be a sign that will be contradicted. Peace is the ultimate end of the Kingdom of God, but peace has a price. Jesus is warning the crowd that wherever the Word of God is heard and acted upon, division occurs. Fathers will be divided against sons and mothers against daughters.

The coming judgment forces us to look at the implications of our commitments. As Jesus warned in last Sunday's Gospel, a commitment of faith requires us to change our attitude toward material possessions and to take even more seriously our moral responsibilities. Here he reminds the crowd that those who commit to him will find it affects the way they relate to friends and family members. The angel who announced the birth of John the Baptist to Zechariah said John would go before Jesus to turn the hearts of fathers toward their children. But a commitment to Jesus forces us to change the way we live our lives, and this can put strains on relationships.

We don't expect to hear such difficult words from Jesus in the Gospel. But it is good to be reminded once in a while that the decision to do the right thing, the good thing, is not always easy and without conflict. Jesus himself did not make easy decisions and avoid conflict. In today's reading, he reminds his followers to be prepared for difficult decisions and conflict as well.

Dear young people and parents,

Re: Diocesan Ignite Conference Group 2022*What is Ignite Conference?

Ignite Conference is an annual Catholic youth conference held in Brisbane and run by Ignite Youth. It's a four-day event featuring real-world formation, encouragement in faith, great people and powerful worship. You can find out more about Ignite Conference here:

<https://igniteconference.com.au/about> and you can see their promo video here:

https://youtu.be/l81C\_L4lgRU. Last year we took a group of around 40 from our diocese who had lots of fun and grew in their experience and understanding of the Catholic faith.

Details for 2022

Ignite Conference is taking place from the 22nd to the 25th of September, however for those from Mackay, Blackwater, Emerald or further west, your journey will go from the 21st to the 26th of September. Ignite Conference is open to people of all ages however only adults and high school students will be able to travel and stay with our diocesan group. Families are welcome to register and arrange their own transport and accommodation. Depending on interest we aim to offer bus transport from Mackay, Rockhampton, Calliope and Gin Gin.

How to Register

To register with our group, you will need to use the following codes:

For adult participants the code is RockyAdult

For high school students, the code is RockyHigh

Neither of the codes are case sensitive. To register go to <https://app.tickets.org.au/iy/IC22bne>. Enter the code in the coupon code field at the top of the page. Fill out the appropriate registration details which will be Rocky Diocese - Ignite High for high school students or Rocky Diocese - Ignite Adults for young adult participants or leaders. Then select the 'place order' button at the bottom of the page to complete your order.
